Over a dozen members of Germany's AfD party walk out of a Holocaust tribute after being accused of anti-Semitism by professional Holocaust survivor, Charlotte Knobloch. Imagine paying tribute to people that hate you.

Green Party parliamentary leader Katharina Schulze continued to lambast AfD after the event. Katharina once said, "Do not be afraid that old white men will forfeit our future because they can't cope with diversity."

Cheers to replacement migration, Katharina.

Dr. Charlotte Knobloch hat es perfekt zusammengefasst: „Nie wieder! ist das fundamentale Grundversprechen der Bundesrepublik“. Für dieses „Nie wieder“ müssen wir gemeinsam jeden Tag arbeiten. Für Toleranz. Für Gleichheit. Für Freiheit. Für unsere Demokratie! #keinvergessen #ltby

Dr. Charlotte Knobloch summed it up perfectly: "Never again! is the fundamental promise of the Federal Republic ". For this "never again" we have to work together every day. For tolerance. For equality. For freedom. For our democracy! #keinvergessen #ltby

Incidentally, Katharina has been a stalwart in the fight against anti-Semitism - one of Germany's most outspoken activists. She was also expedited to the top rank of her party in just two years. Coincidence or cohercidence?

You've probably heard it already: Kuwait Airways does not carry Israeli citizens. That's pure anti-Semitism! The discriminatory ban on transport may not be allowed to pass. Moreover, it is shocking how little that cares. Where is the outcry when Jews are harassed? We must always oppose anti-Semitism. They also start from Munich Airport, so have asked a request. I think: Kuwait Airways must be deprived of take-off and landing permits at the federal level. Bayern must be strong for that!

STAND TOGETHER AGAINST ANTI-SEMITISM

MUNICH GREEN CALL FOR SOLIDARITY WITH JEWS

The Munich Greens want to set a sign of solidarity in the face of anti-Semitic attacks in recent weeks and months. That is why the Munich Greens call for participation in the rally "Stand Together Against Anti-Semitism" on Friday, June 8 from 14.30 clock on St. Jakobs Square.

"Germany and Munich remember very well our history. I find it unbearable that individuals repeatedly try to poison the social climate with attacks, insults and acts of violence. Attacks on Jews are attacks on our liberal society and on the fundamental values of our democracy. Therefore, the rally is an important signal, we show that Munich is together," said the top candidate of the Bavarian Greens for the state election and parliamentary group leader Katharina Schulze. "In Bavaria there were a total of 148 anti-Semitic offenses in 2017, and unfortunately the rate of enlightenment is low. The search and investigation pressure needs to be increased, as well as prevention measures. All people who have been victims of anti-Semitic violence deserve our
